Zurich University of Applied Sciences

The ZHAW is one of the largest and most productive universities of applied sciences in Switzerland, with a strong presence both nationally and internationally. Among the ZHAW's distinguishing features are interdisciplinarity and a close connection to everyday working practice.

About 9'700 students are enrolled at the ZHAW in a total of 26 Bachelor's degree programmes and 13 consecutive Master's programmes. The university also offers a broad range of continuing education courses, including over 30 Master's of Advanced Studies programmes. 30 institutes at the ZHAW network their resources to provide business and industry with customised services.

Location of the Venue

International workshop meeting of the Cost Action FA0904 will be held at the ZHAW School of Life Sciences and Facility Management in Wädenswil (Building GA; see "map of Campus Grüental"). Wädenswil is a picturesque town of about 20.000 inhabitants on the south shore of the Lake of Zurich. The Grüental Campus of the School, where the meeting will take place, can be easily reached by public transport.
